Course Overview:

Welcome to Chemistry Seminar! In this course, student will develop new or refine current skills that they may find useful in their academic and professional careers. The purpose of this course is to provide students a broad depth of knowledge in an appropriate field of chemistry, especially an emerging area of research activity that may be relevant. Students will be connected to a scientific community in a supportive atmosphere where teaching and research partnerships are formed and faculty and students work together in common pursuits. Students will listen to external speakers as well as outgoing research in the chemistry department.

Student Learning Objectives:

Students will:

1. Demonstrate your understanding and retention of fundamental chemistry concepts.
2. Analyze information and ideas
3. Develop communication skills necessary for scientific dissemination.

Materials

Book: None

Grading

This course will be graded as either Credit (CR) or No Credit (NC). A grade of Credit will be earned upon regular attendance.

Attendance

Attendance is mandatory for this class and will be monitored. Missing more than 25% of the seminar periods without excused absences will result in a grade of No Credit (NC). Absences from lectures can only be accepted if the absence falls within one of the categories outlined in the undergraduate catalog. All excused absences must be obtained as soon as possible. During each seminar period attendance will be taken by passing around a sign-in sheet and it is your responsibility to sign it. The scheduled seminar list on the website will be updated throughout the semester and scheduled seminars will be posted around the fourth floor of the Science Building. It will be up to you to know when a seminar is planned.

We will have an orientation to seminar on August 26 at 11:00 a.m. in Room S465 to go over the syllabus and answer questions concerning your responsibilities.

Miscellaneous policies

I have an Open Communication Policy: If you have any questions class related please do not hesitate to email me or come by my office. Please silence cell phone ringers during class. The instructor reserves the right to answer any ringing cell phones during lecture, or to dismiss the offending student. Use of cellphones / PDAs / MP3 players and similar devices during class will be considered academic dishonesty. Recording of lectures without the instructor's permission is prohibited. Laptops should not be used during class without permission.

Academic Honesty

The university policy will be enforced. See page 70 of the 2014-15 undergraduate catalog. Some examples of academic dishonesty include (but are not limited to) copying another student's assignment, lying about being ill on the day of a test, using a cell phone or other communication device during a test, quoting an author's writing (including material found on the internet) without giving due credit.
