Grading

This course will be graded as either Credit (CR) or No Credit (NC). A grade of Credit will be earned upon successful completion of your oral presentation, your written report, and regular attendance.

Attendance

Attendance is mandatory for this class and will be monitored. Missing more than 25% of the seminar periods including excused absences will result in a grade of No Credit (NC). Absences from lectures can only be accepted if the absence falls within one of the categories outlined in the undergraduate catalog. All excused absences must be obtained as soon as possible. During each seminar period attendance will be taken by passing around a sign-in sheet and it is your responsibility to sign it. Furthermore, students must meet outside speakers for at least 50% of the seminars during lunch. Participation is mandatory and you will be expected to ask one (1) question to student speakers as well as outside speakers over the term which you will document to me by uploading them in MU online. Students will briefly state speaker's name, date, their questions, and the speaker's answer. On the day of the seminar, Dr. Quiñones will assign a specific student to ask questions to the speaker. The scheduled seminar list on the website will be updated throughout the semester and scheduled seminars will be posted around the fourth floor of the Science Building. It will be up to you to know when a seminar is planned.

Written Report

On Friday January 13, you will turn in a short (4 – 5 sentences, less than 300 words) abstract including your Capstone Title and the name of your research advisor. The abstract must be uploaded at MUonline /Course Content folder in a Word document. Detailed guidelines for writing your research report can be found on the seminar webpage. The written report will be evaluated by your research advisor and one other faculty member. I will assign the second reader and help make sure you get feedback in a timely fashion. A completed draft of your paper must be submitted to me by Friday March 3rd by 11:59 pm. You will submit the draft to me by email with your advisor carbon copied (cc) to the email for the first round of reading/revision. If I have not received the paper by March 3rd, you will receive a grade of No Credit for the course. Your second reader must receive a full completed draft in a Word document approved by your capstone advisor by Friday April 7th. You will submit the approved draft to me by email with your advisor and second reader carbon copied (cc) to the email. The scanned cover page of your paper with both readers' signatures and a final electronic copy of your paper ((PDF form)) are due Friday April 28th, 2017. No hard copies (printouts) will be accepted. You will submit the final paper and the scanned cover page with the signatures to me by email.

*Note that you must get both readers' consent to submit the final copy of your paper and it may take several interactions before approval so don't wait until the last minute. ****

Oral Presentation

The oral presentation can be conducted either during a seminar to the Department of Chemistry or at an approved scientific meeting outside the department. If you have the opportunity to present your research outside the department, you must have it approved by me before giving the presentation to receive credit. For oral presentations within the department, the schedule will be determined on a first come, first served basis. Several seminar periods will be allotted for Capstone students with each time slot accommodating up to three presentations. The seminar coordinator will assign each student the date from the list of available dates for the oral presentation. Therefore, check your email and seminar webpage to see the assigned date for your final oral presentation and inform your capstone advisor of this date ahead of time. Guidelines to prepare for the oral presentations can be found in more detail on the seminar webpage. A PowerPoint outline must be uploaded at MU online /Course Content folder in a Word document or PowerPoint. If I have not received the outline by March 17th, you will receive a grade of No Credit for the course. Your performance on the presentation will be evaluated by faculty members in attendance that day. If more than one fourth of the faculty members find your presentation unacceptable, you will be asked to repeat the seminar. There will be time slots reserved at the end of the semester for those who must repeat their presentation. Failure to receive a passing grade on your oral presentation will result in a No Credit grade for the course.
